

B.Com. (Hons.)

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs):

B.Com.(Hons.) program has the following Program Educational Objectives:

PEO1: To articulate a successful career as an entrepreneur or employee within public/ private organizations in fields like Accounting, Taxation, Finance, or any other related areas.

PEO2: To facilitate students for applying the knowledge that they have acquired during the program, in their respective areas of employment.

PEO3: To be an expert in the skills set required by the industry in which the student chooses to pursue his career.

PEO4: To enable the student to be more clear about his/her career goals after a few years of the graduate program.

PEO5: To develop a personal growth roadmap while concurrently pursuing socially responsible outcomes in both personal and professional life.

Program Outcomes (POs):

On completing the program, students will be able to gain:

PO1: Disciplinary Knowledge: Demonstrate mastery of fundamental concepts in commerce and business-related areas like Accounting, Economics, Taxation, Auditing, Marketing, Finance, and Law.

PO2: Problem-Solving and Research Skills: Develop an attitude to look at a problem from different perspectives, finding new ways to solve the problems, and developing an attitude toward research.

PO3: Critical Thinking: Enable students to make informed, logical, and thoughtful decisions in different personal and professional situations.

PO4: Creativity and Entrepreneurship: Cultivate and promote the habit of creativity among students. Also, encourage them to develop and demonstrate traits of entrepreneurship.

PO5: Communication Effectiveness: Enable students to be very effective in their written and oral communication skills in at least two languages i.e. English and their regional language.

PO6: Analytical Reasoning: Facilitating the development of students' logical skills so that they can make any decision after evaluating various dimensions of any issue.

PO7: Coordinating and Collaborating with Others: Development of coordination and collaboration skills, over competition with other students and future workplace peers.

PO8: Leadership Qualities: Development of leadership skills in the students, like empathy, decision-making, risk-taking, and visionary thought process.

PO9: Professional Development: Make students ready to adopt professional behavior, practices, and professional communication skills.

PO10: Digital and Technological Proficiency: Make students tech-savvy and proficient in using new digital tools to enrich areas of their interest.

PO11: Multicultural Competence: Developing students to realize the need to understand the multicultural facets of an organization and develop the related competence.

PO12: Ethical Decision-Making: To make the student understand the importance of ethical decision-making in the various business processes.

Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs):

The B.Com.(Hons.) program at Chandigarh University, Uttar Pradesh aims to achieve the following Program Specific Outcomes:

PSO1: Commerce graduates would learn to apply future-generation tools including artificial intelligence while studying broad areas like Accounting, Finance, Taxation, Marketing, Human resources, etc.

PSO2: Commerce graduates would also study all those subjects which are studied in various professional courses like CA, CMA, CS, ACCA, MBA, etc. This will also give them the liberty to choose their career in any of the professional areas.

PSO3: Commerce graduates would learn to present themselves with a suitable appearance of their personality, the right communication, positive attitude towards work/life by their active participation in various curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities.

