

BA (Hons.) Liberal Arts

BA (Hons.) Liberal Arts (PEO) Programme Educational Objectives:

Graduate will be able

PEO1: To perform exceptionally in careers related to civil services, entrepreneurship, leadership roles, teaching/research or work with NGOs.

PEO2: To cultivate a broad array of interdisciplinary knowledge and skills integrating concepts from humanities, social sciences, arts and apply critical thinking, creative versatility, literary intellect and cultural sensitivity for effective communication and decision making in their professional environment.

PEO3: To instill the approach of life-long learning necessary to ensure learning throughout life in a self-directed manner.

PEO4: To develop criticality to be applied to a vast body of knowledge, from policies to practices, beliefs to arguments in order to promote participation in national and local level processes.

PEO5: To demonstrate accountability in applying knowledge and skills in work and/or ensuring safety and security at workplaces.

PEO6: To practice continuously striving for justice, ethics, equality, honesty, and integrity.

BA (Hons.) Liberal Arts (POs) Program Outcomes

After completion of this program, the learners will be able to

PO1-Understanding Social Context: To contextualize student learning and understand society and nation as entities that impact social lives.

PO2-Critical Thinking: To be able to critically analyze geographic, ethnic, political, racial, gender-based, cultural, and historical perspectives and evaluate them.

PO3-Application of Theoretical Knowledge to Real-life Situations: To acquire knowledge to solve problems of the individual and society and develop an ability to apply classroom learning to real-life situations.

PO4-Communication Skill: To learn to conceptualize and articulate complex issues into a coherent and understandable written statement and presentations.

PO5- Interpersonal Skill Development: To promote effective teamwork to encourage diverse perspectives and work respectfully with diverse teams as part of a coordinated group.

PO6- Technology Skills: To exhibit information technology skills for success in employment and advancement in career.

PO7-Ethics, Environment, and Sustainability: To contribute to ethical solutions that create sustainable social and economic value for local practices.

PO8- Life Long Learning: To develop abilities and skills in engaging in independent and lifelong learning

PO9-Multidisciplinary Learning: To enable students to think from different perspectives to have real assessments

PO10- Competence in Research: To develop research acumen by going through the works of globally acclaimed authors

PO11-Holistic Development: To be holistically developed through cognitive, emotive, and social intelligence achieved by inculcating multifaceted ideas

PO12-Value inculcation: To instill ethical and moral sensitivity through in-depth thinking

BA (Hons.) Liberal Program Specific Outcomes

PSO1: Promoting competitive as well as cooperative spirit at the national and international level engaging students in group activities and presentations and class discussions.

PSO2: To acquire the ability to operationalise problems, frame relevant disciplinary specific research questions, understand appropriate selection of methodology, interpret and infer data. Also, to apply AI tools for conducting research.

PSO3: To learn to extrapolate and translate concepts and theories to real-life situations.

PSO4: Develop ability to think from different theoretical perspectives and inculcate intellectual ability to think in scientific, interpretative and critical ways such as critical analysis of AI and its relation to society.